is a recognized institution with a good number of disciples. A list^x of paraphernalia granted to the Matt from time to time ~~as~~^{and} used by the present Swamizalu has been prepared in Kannada, ⁷⁶and accompanies the aforesaid report of the Amildar.

2. It is also seen from the enclosed original permits issued to the predecessors of the present Swamizalu by the then Hon'ble of the British Resident in 1822, H. H. the late p, / Sri Krishnaraja Wodeyar Bahadur III, and Nawab Fathel Ali Khan Bahadur, that the privilege was recognized more than once, and the present Swamizalu is, by virtue of his Succession to the Peta, entitled to the same

3. I request therefore that the permit required by the present Swamizalu may kindly be granted to enable him to travel in some parts of the British India with all his paraphernalia and that the enclosures to the Amildar's report be kindly caused to be returned when no longer
